

On Nov 9th, 2018, the final conference of the BizMOOC project took place in Cracow. 3 keynotes, 1 academic panel, 1 business panel, 6 academic papers, 1 discussion roundtable, 3 workshops, 1 special dinner keynote, more than 100 experts from business and academia – those are only the numbers to these special event where business experts, scholars from university and students put their heads together to discuss approach to close skills gap in business competences with MOOCs and beyond.

The MOOC BOOK was presented, the keynotes live-streamed and the unique venue of the Cracow University of Economics provided the perfect framework.

Thanks for coming and sharing. Here are the first pictures, more to come soon.

