

BizMOOC is proud to announce a new iteration of our first MOOC with the release of Digital Skills, Digital Learning!

This free course will help you take stock of, and improve your digital skills; you will explore how you engage with the web, and how you can learn effectively taking a Massive Open Online Course, a MOOC. You will even have a go at hacking a news website! If you have an interest in lifelong learning, this course is for you.

The course formally launches on 9 April 2018 and will be facilitated for the period 9 April – 6 May 2018.
