

M00Cs as a solution to bridge the skills gap

"DO YOU BELIEVE ACADEMIC PROGRAMS ARE PREPARING GRADUATES FOR JOBS?"

New Skills agenda for Europe

The BizM00C project addresses how M00C can be used for business. Different studies imply that there exists a gap on the skills needed in Europe and the skills people have. Recently the EC launched a new Skills agenda for Europe.

The new Skills Agenda for Europe launches a number of actions to ensure that the right training, the right skills and the right support is available to people in the European Union. A study of CEDEFOP in 2015 indicated that Skill shortages and gaps in European enterprises. Genuine skill shortages affect a small group of dynamic, internationally oriented European enterprises in specific economic sectors (health and social care, ICT, advanced manufacturing). Some studies indicate that there is a mismatch between academic programs and the skills needed for jobs. The BizM00C specifically aims at these issues – and is using M00Cs to address these skills issues. It is a knowledge alliance to enable a European-wide exploitation of the potential of M00Cs for the world business.
